Evenings of poetry and prose with reflective piano music.

Author and humanitarian Terry Waite CBE reads extracts from his book 'Out of the silence: memories, poems, reflections' where he recalls the highs and lows of his life, both during his ordeal as a hostage in Beirut and in the happier years of humanitarian work that have followed.

Vicky Yannoula performs classical piano music that aims to reflect the meaning of the readings and take the listener on a journey to inner peace.

Terry Waite CBE is a best-selling author and humanitarian. He spent almost five years in solitary confinement as a hostage, after which he decided to devote the remainder of his life to working for the disadvantaged and earning his own living by writing and lecturing. He has often said that music and good language have the capacity to breathe harmony into the soul. The 'Words & Music' performances are designed to promote harmony and peace in what is a deeply troubled world.
